It is better to light one small candle than to curse the darkness - Eleanor Roosevelt

The Leadership Conference Education Fund champions the idea that Americans of every heritage can live together with equal rights and mutual respect. We provide training and tools to students, parents, teachers, policy makers, grassroots partners and the press to build a country that actively works to create an America as good as its ideals.

You have the power to make a difference. Your tax-deductible gift today -- large or small -- can help fuel the movement that protects the hard-won rights of all Americans. We need your support now!
